

Hello Prospective Advertiser!

My name is Deno Stiles, owner of Deno's Garage, a vintage automobile shop with a specialty in air cooled VW's and Porsche's.

I get it, being bothered about advertising and things like that is super annoying, and I don't disagree, however, I'm coming to provide you a testimonial, not a sales pitch.

When I was first introduced to Rob and Collector Car Guide, I knew I wasn't dealing with a salesman; I was dealing with somebody who generally cared about the automotive community and was very particular about who he dealt with. He didn't just want me to cough up money to be in his periodical, he wanted to get to know me to see if I was a good fit. That was huge to me, and that level of exclusivity really helped to make my decision!

He went beyond that, he continued to stop by to not only make sure I was stocked up with copies of Collector Car Guide, but most importantly that it was working, that's right. He really wanted to make sure that my advertising was reaching people.

Well, it was, in a big way. While his content is very exclusive, his exposure is anything but, this little "Rag" shows up EVERYWHERE!

It's a good looking, glove box sized guide, printed with good quality materials and even better layout. It's the kind of thing you hold onto, not just read a couple times and toss out.

I can tell you with absolute certainty that my involvement with Collector Car Guide has been nothing but positive, lucrative, and most importantly, I was able to develop a relationship with Rob who personally has connected me with other people in the industry to make my business run smoother.

Thank you for your time,
